Component Mission:

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Deputy Director of National Intelligence for Intelligence Integration (DDNI/II) serves as the Director of National Intelligence's (DNI) senior leader for intelligence integration across the IC enterprise. DDNI/II is responsible for ensuring customer outcomes by leading advances in collection and analysis that ensure the quality, timeliness, and utility of insights for the nation's decision-makers. Additionally, DDNI/II is responsible for increasing expertise and improving tradecraft at all levels through specialization, integration, and collaboration. DDNI/II is responsible for the strategic vision, direction, and planning to deliver a more integrated IC reflecting the collective wisdom of our collection and analytic components to advance, in support of the National Intelligence Managers, the Unifying Intelligence Strategies (UIS).

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Direct and oversee IC-wide production and coordination of NIEs and other Community papers (IC Assessments, IC Briefs, and Sense of the Community Memoranda) concerning global economic, financial, and energy issues. Serve as subject matter expert and advise the DNI on worldwide economic and financial trends in support of the DNI's role as the principal intelligence advisor to the President.
- As part of the NIM team, develop the analytic portion of the Unified Intelligence Strategy for Economics, in concert with analysts from across the IC and under the guidance of the National Intelligence Manager for Economic Issues. Provide assessments of IC analytic efforts in support of the UIS for global economic issues.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE

L E A D I N G I N T E L L I G E N C E I N T E G R A T I O N

- Manage the Department of the Treasury's Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS) Support Group responsible for the production and IC coordination of National Security Threat Assessments on the acquisition of US businesses and corporations by foreign entities.
- Review and preside over the research and production plans on economic and energy issues of the Community's analytic components, identify redundancies and gaps, and advise the NIM, DDII, PDDNI, and DNI on gaps and shortfalls in analytic capabilities across the IC; author personal assessments of critical global economic, financial, and energy issues.
- Brief policymakers, IC officials, members of Congress, foreign partners and other major stakeholders on economic and financial trends, and key issues impacting the energy sector. Develop and sustain a professional network with IC analysts, analytic managers, and collection managers to ensure timely and appropriate intelligence support to policy customers regarding global economic, financial, and energy issues.
- Establish and manage liaison relationships with academia, the business community, and other non-government subject matter experts to ensure the IC has a comprehensive understanding of global economic, financial, and energy issues.
- Lead, manage, and direct a professional level staff, evaluate performance, collaborate on goal setting, and provide feedback and guidance regarding personal and professional development opportunities.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Recognized expertise in global economic, financial, and/or energy analysis and knowledge of the IC's global economic, financial, and energy analytic community sufficient to lead the IC's analytic production.
- Demonstrated capability to direct interagency, interdisciplinary IC teams against a range of functional and/or regional analytical issues.
- Excellent interpersonal, organizational, and management skills to conceptualize and effectively lead complex analytic projects with limited supervision. Ability to work with and fairly represent the IC when analytic views differ among agencies.
- Excellent communication skills, including ability to exert influence with senior leadership and communicate effectively with people at all staff levels, both internal and external to the organization, to give oral presentations and to otherwise represent the NIC in interagency meetings.
- Expert leadership and managerial capabilities, including the ability to effectively direct taskings, assess and manage performance, and support personal and professional development of all levels of personnel.
